

Jessica Notini

Jessica Notini is an associate of Provil & Associates and a full-time trainer, mediator, negotiation coach and facilitator practicing in California and internationally. As a trainer, she has developed and led many courses for both private entities and public institutions in the areas of negotiation, mediation, conflict resolution, leadership & influencing, teambuilding and communication skills. She has adapted these courses to the needs of a wide variety of professionals including project managers, division leaders, human resources personnel, judges, attorneys and administrators.

In addition, Ms. Notini teaches negotiation, mediation and alternative dispute resolution as an Adjunct Professor to graduate students at Stanford Law School, Boalt School of Law, Hastings College of the Law, University of San Francisco Law School, SFSU Executive Business Management Program and Mills College MBA Program. As a fluent Spanish speaker, she also provides negotiation and mediation training in Spain, Peru, Ecuador and Mexico, she has served as a consultant to the Congress of Peru regarding the development of mediation legislation, and has presented as a keynote speaker in a variety of conferences and congresses.

With respect to her mediation practice, Ms. Notini primarily focuses on the areas of probate & estate, employment discrimination and business disputes. She is a member of numerous court, national, governmental and community Alternative Dispute Resolution panels. As a facilitator, Ms. Notini also assists public and private entities seeking to organize work on complex and controversial projects, develop clear missions, resolve budgetary issues and improve teamwork.

Ms. Notini is a leader in the field of alternative dispute resolution in California. She served for three years as President of the Association for Dispute Resolution of Northern California (formerly NCMA) and served on the Board of Directors for the Mediation Society of San Francisco. She is currently the incoming Chair of the California State Bar ADR Committee and belongs to a number of bar associations and other local and national professional organizations. Prior to her work in alternative dispute resolution, Ms. Notini practiced environmental law. She received her J.D. in 1989 from the University of Michigan where she graduated magna cum laude and was awarded the Order of the Coif.