

Samuel J. Provil, PMP

Sam Provil is President and Managing Consultant of Provil & Associates, a Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania based project management services company, providing professional program/project management training, consulting, and support services.

Mr. Provil possesses more than 30 years of professional project management as well as project planning & control functions experience, spanning several industries including aerospace, defense, engineering, construction, manufacturing, product development, retail, transportation, utilities, and information systems/technologies. Over the past 25 years, he has specialized in the evaluation, specification, design, development, and implementation of client program/project management offices (PMO's).

Sam's project management instructor experience includes the development and presentation of superior quality seminars/workshops for several premier U.S. educational institutions, including:

- Boston University's Management Development Program,
- Duquesne University's Center for Corporate & Executive Education.
- University of Pittsburgh's FLEX MBA Program,
- Worcester Polytechnic Institute's Professional Education Program.

Mr. Provil has presented seminars, workshops, and papers to thousands of professionals, representing both commercial industry and government organizations, throughout the U.S. as well as internationally.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management from Gannon College, and is a Certified Project Management Professional (PMP) by the Project Management Institute (PMI).

In addition to PMI, Sam is an active member of the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania (ESWP).